

Waiver of Liability

The company, its officers and management assume no liability for the actions of participants while participating in company supported recreational activities, including a reasonable period of time preceding and following such activity, or for policies of the association, except as expressly set forth as company policy or benefits (for example, medical insurance programs for employees). Employees participating in recreational activities will be asked to sign a waiver of liability.

Waiver of Liability

I, _____ hereby release Perform Air International, Inc. from any and all liability connected with my participation in company recreational activities.
I acknowledge that I am participating in these activities on my own time and of my own choice.

Employee Signature

Date

Witness